DR. JOHN F. TRUE'S PIN WORM ELIXIR!

A GREAT DISCOVERY.

In olden times there was no child-crippling disease so as a statistic verminitis it has no equal. It is said all forms of worms are bad, but pin worms are the most destructive to the welfare of suffering humanity, are triumphantly expelled by this truly wonderful remedy. Tremendous numbers of children have been freed from this curse, it has not effectively removed from the system those troublesome and disagreeable worms, but the children who have been treated with True's Elixir have been freed and restored to health by its use. Being a mild and gentle medicine, it is a certain and safe remedy. It has also expelled several lizards. One eight inches in length, is now a pet in the house. It is a curious fact that this veritable young alligator has been caused by worms and indigestion.

How the Case Stands.

Now that the hearings on the Australian ballot bill before the Judiciary Committee have closed it is well, as the lawyers say, to sum up the case. A good deal has been said about an alleged popular demand for this legislation based upon certain petitions that have been carefully worked up by the few men who are alone responsible for the attempt to force this law upon the people. Now it is a well known fact that it is an easy matter to get a petition for almost anything, and in this connection we are of the opinion that more names have been sent into the Legislature to protect pigeons from trap shooting than appear on the ballot bill petition, although it is claimed in certain quarters that the last named measure represents the most important question now before the people.

A better way to get the average opinion of the people of the State is by an examination of the list of the men who have appeared for or against the bill and the sections they represent. In the first place take the advocates of the bill. One man, Mr. Gainer, is from Androscoggin, one, Mr. Bartlett, from Aroostook, three, Messrs. Emerson, Snow and Leeson, from Chamberlain, one, Mr. Robertson from Knox; seven, Messrs. Manley, Haynes, Hasker, Matthews, Heath, Tolins and Nichols from Kennebec, one, Mr. Allan, from Lincoln, and one, Mr. Clark, from York. In opposition to the bill we have one Judge Wing, from Androscoggin; two, Messrs. Lamberti and Perry, from Aroostook two, Messrs. Drummond and Holden from Cumberland, one, Mr. John T. Attorney-at-Law, of Franklin, two, Messrs. Seward and Goddard, from Kennebec two, Messrs. Cutler and Mitchell, from Portland, two, Messrs. Babcock and Woodbury from Oxford, one, ex-Representative Hovey, from Somerset, and one, P. S. Campbell, Esq., from Washington.

It will thus be seen that fifteen men have appeared for the bill from seven counties. Of this number the two counties of Cumberland and Kennebec furnished ten and the two cities of Portland and Augusta nine. On the other hand nine counties were represented in opposition, no one county having more than two representatives before the committee. In this comparison we have a fair illustration of the utter lack of foundation for the assertion that the people are clamoring for this law. For weeks and weeks the advocates of this measure have been scouring the State, but in the hearings just concluded struck out the two cities of Augusta and Portland and there would be nothing left of the alleged support of the bill. This, together with the additional fact that the people of the State approved the action of the last Legislature in defeating this measure, as they did also the refusal of the Republican State Convention to incorporate the ballot plank in the party platform, afford the present Legislature excellent evidence that the people do not want this cumbersome and expensive law passed upon the statute book.

An Amusing Claim.

The Portland Advertiser gives an amusing exhibition of "bounce" in an attempt to get away from THE WHIG's paragraph. It is a matter of well remembered history that it hampered and antagonized the men most prominently engaged in overthrowing the Garrisonian conspirators. Its attempt at this late day to claim that it was "one of the most active in exposing and resisting that infamous conspiracy" is decidedly amusing, as also is its talk about suggesting the course that was adopted, when, as a matter of fact, no other course was thought of by those engaged in the real work of stamping out the revolution. Had the papers in the State all been like the Adv. now the conspirators would have had an easy time, although it had every incentive to enter a vigorous protest, as Portland was disenchanted, while the rascals did not touch a member of the Bangor delegation. It would be interesting to see some of those editorials in which the Advertiser exposed the fraud. It is a singular fact that some of the papers now advocating the Australian bill quote ex-Garrison as a "ballot reformer."

An Inconsistent Paper.

The Portland Advertiser gives the devoting all its energies to expose Mr. W. H. Looney, who Looney was alive at all accounts, however, and appeared to be in good health.—Portland Press.

We would suggest to our contemporaries that instead of this sort of silly talk it could employ its due to better advantage by trying to reconcile the contradictory attitude of its own columns on the election question. "The people are unable to understand how a paper that vigorously denounced at the time of the election just the same kind of talk that is now made by this man Looney, can to-day practically endorse the slander. If the verdict of the people was a "magnificent endorsement" in September by what peculiar process of reasoning does it now become a thing of reprobation in January?" Consistency is a jewel that is conspicuous for its absence in the Press office at the present time. We care nothing about Looney as an individual, but when his vile slanders are put forward as the chief argument in favor of this ballot law, then and only then it becomes necessary to notice him. A witness who is repudiated by his own side, as was Looney at the last hearing is a pretty weak brother to rely upon for the establishment of a case.

Mr. Boutelle on the Barrundia Affair.

(Wash. Cor. Portland Press Feb. 10.) The time of the House to-day was taken up by a very brilliant debate upon the Barrundia affair. It will be remembered that Barrundia was a Guatemalan revolutionist, who, as a fugitive from his country, was a passenger on the American merchant steamer Anaspid. It is the Guatemalan harbor of San Jose, the Guatemalan authorities, with the approval of the American Minister, Mr. M'Kenney, attempted to arrest Barrundia, whom they charged with murder, embezzlement and treason. Barrundia resisted arrest and was shot. Our State Department recalled M'Kenney for not protecting Barrundia from arrest, and the Navy Department censured Commander Ritter, who was present with an American war vessel, for not taking Barrundia and carrying him safely upon the high seas.

The arguments to-day centered upon the

MAINE NEWS.

MAINE LEGISLATURE.

These are Busy Days for Many of the Members.

A Bath Dentist Gets Himself Rather Disliked.

Some Forceful Reasons Against the Australian Ballot.

The Legislature of Wm. and Courier

AT STATE, Feb. 11. These are busy for a large part of the members of the legislature. The early morning hours find many members in their seats at work answering correspondents or preparing for more active work of the day. Few sessions of the more important committees are common.

The hearing before the Committee on Towns in the Camden division has been largely by evening sessions. The hearing this matter was concluded last evening, H. Montgomery making the closing argument for the bill.

The first matter before the Indus committee yesterday afternoon was the state registration bill. Several dentists in different sections of the State were sent to advocate the measure giving dentists for desiring it, the principal thing it would elevate the standard the only person appearing against the bill was Dr. Gilmore of Bath. He had only printed considerable matter in the bill and sent it to the various members. Among other things he said that any Senator or Representative who voted for a dental or medical regulation was a traitor, a coward, a bad, ignorant man, unfit to represent a free state. Mr. Day of the committee, told him if he was the author of the implicit containing the above. He added that he was and at once concluded the discussion on the face of the fact that he had no further business that concluded.

The committee then continued the hearing on the ballot bill. There was not a great attendance at this hearing, though there were quite a number who spoke for and against the bill.

H. M. Haynes was the first to speak in favor of the bill and was followed by H. S. Mauley and O. D. Day.

It was during his remarks found it best to deny the charge made by Mr. Day in the first hearing as to him. It was admitted that it is comparatively small that ad-state to the Union has a right to be honest people.

Dr. H. L. Dunham made a good argument against the bill. He believed that it was not needful and that nothing but the law could break them up. He believed that the system would encourage the exchange of party candidates and the exchange of votes from personal spite.

The burden would be on the man who wanted to get a split ticket and not the man who wants to vote the straight ticket. It would be the system be put in.

F. J. Southard, Esq., of Augusta, made strong arguments and among other things said that we need no kangaroo or wolf law to enable us to vote an honest ticket. He said that the voters of Maine had been slandered by the speakers who had advocated the measure by declaring wholesale bribery and corruption.

The opponents of the bill represented a much larger territory and more numerous people than those favoring the bill and they all were most emphatic in the statement that the set of persons they represented are most pronounced in their opposition to it.

In the Senate the day the appropriation was up for discussion. Among the one in one of $16,348 14 deficiency for furniture and repairs on public buildings there was considerable discussion of this and some question as to the correctness of some items. Senator Muller ex-claimed that the various purposes for which the money was used, and the bill including the item was passed.

To the House this forenoon a vigorous debate was had on the registration bill. A more time was consumed in discussing proposed amendments than has been given to this measure. Among the amendments proposed was to place the appointment of the power of the third man in the hands of the County Commissioners instead of the Governor. Another amendment is to have a bill of four, as is provided by the Maine statute of law, instead of three as provided by the bill.

But the vote was taken before adjournment and that was on an amendment, which was defeated by a large majority.

The Legal Affairs Committee yesterday voted upon the petition for the repeal of the law prohibiting the killing of live pugs from traps and voted ought to pass, the committee being divided. It is very doubtful if the report is accepted as it here is a strong feeling on the part of many members that the law should not be repealed.

The Labor Committee consider the bill which was passed by the Senate.

WATKINSON WROTE IT; and His Letter to ORONO IS DELETED.

BOSTON, Feb. 11. The Washington Correspondent of the Baltimore Sun sent the declaration of Governor Hill that he never received such a letter as that published in the Sun this morning over the signature of Wm. Watkinson, Wm. Watkinson, Esq., a forgery," telegraphs his paper. Every word of it is genuine. The letter was addressed to the Royal Arches, Boston, and the seal of the Royal Arches was to go to Washington to oppose the passage of the silver bill.

At Karakas Project.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11. The Board of Trade and Advertisers have again voted in favor of a bill to prohibit the killing of live pugs from traps and voted ought to pass, the committee being divided. It is very doubtful if the report is accepted as it here is a strong feeling on the part of many members that the law should not be repealed.

The Labor Committee consider the bill which was passed by the Senate.

EDAMO.

Eighty-Six Burned.

A bill was introduced to authorize Blodget and Saco Railroad Co. to issue $60,000,000 mortgage bonds; bill that savings banks shall pay no interest on deposits which, dividends included, exceed $4,000.

The discussion of the registration bill was continued.

Mr. Savage, of Auburn, introduced an amendment placing the appointment of the registration board in the hands of the County Commissioners.

Mr. Stearns, of Caribou, opposed the amendment.

Mr. Callahan of Lewiston moved to substitute that the board shall consist of four members, recommended by the city commissioners.

Mr. Cote of Blodget and Gentleman of Parsonsfield opposed the bill as partisan.

Harrington of Norridgewock and Noble of Lewiston opposed the amendment.

Mr. Chadbourn of Blodget, offered an amendment providing for a board of four to be nominated by the city committee.

Mr. Peaks of Dover, favored the bill and opposed the amendment. White of Bangor, opposed the bill.

Mr. Calahan's amendment was lost, 96 to 3. Savage's amendment was also lost.

It was voted to vote on the bill without debate at 12 o'clock.

The Senate debated the deficiency in the running expenses of the State House. A motion to strike out this item was lost, 14 to 13.

The Committee on Towns is divided on the Camden division. A hearing was held on the petition to legalize the disposal of certain towns relating to the sale of the Knox and Lincoln Railroad. The Joint Inquiry Committee voted that the bill relating to the Auburn Water Company ought to pass, and the amendment to the bill relating to the Auburn Water Company ought not to pass. The Committee on Labor voted that the bill providing for the forthcoming payment of railroad employees ought not to pass. A hearing by the Fisheries and Game Committee on a change in the lobster law and on change of the law on dogging deer was held.

THE STATE'S STRONG BOX.

The Annual Report of State Treasurer Beat

Statement of Receipts and Expenditures of the Year.

ATOLSTA, Feb. 11. The annual report of State Treasurer George L. Seal was made public to day.

The report states that during the year 1890, a temporary loan of $300,000 was negotiated, as authorized by chapter 246 of the resolves of 1889. It is found that the receipts would not meet the expenditures, owing to the extraordinary appropriations which were necessary to be made by the last Legislature.

The above loan of $300,000 was negotiated with the German Savings Bank in the City of New York and $30,000 with the German Savings Bank of Brooklyn, both bearing interest at the rate of four per cent per annum, payable semi-annually.

The sum of receipts and expenditures shows total receipts of $958,045.44, including $2,411.
